

AWARD FOR TRAINEES OF SCHACHTBAU

At October 12th 2011 the foundation of the company WAGO distinguished for the 13th time young people from the district of the Kyffhäuser and for the first time from the district of Nordhausen for their successful completion of vocational training. The event was held in the eight-corner-house which is in the castle of Sondershausen.

The best three trainees of the year - in a total of 13 different occupations - received an award and a cash prize. The requirement to get an award was a final examination before the Chamber of Commerce and Industry with a result of 2.0 or better.

For their outstanding achievements, our trainees Alexander Mestmacher, he was the best in his class in training construction mechanics, as well as Daniel Jäger the second-best in his vocational training for cutting mechanic got the award and a cash prize. The District Administrator Mr. Peter Hengstermann and Mr. Thomas Fahlbusch from the Chamber of Commerce in Erfurt made the presentation of the awards.

source: nnz-online.de / 13.10.2011
District Administrator Peter Hengstermann, Alexander Mestmacher

source: nnz-online.de / 13.10.2011
Daniel Jäger (in the middle of the picture)